(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOWLING GREEN, V.A., Feb. 16.—The funeral of Dr. John D. Butler, who died yesterday at his home, near Sparta, took place this afternoon from Salem Baptist Church. There was a great outpouring of the people to do honor to the memory of the well loved physician. The interment was made in the church grave yard.

yard.

Dr. Buttler was born Hanover county on Muy 14, 1816, being in the eighty-sixth year of his age. He was the son of Isane Buttler, and had three brothers—Lelan, Patrick H. and Isane Owen Butter—all of whom are dead. He was the last one of his family. He leaves a widow, now has family. He leaves a widow, now and Mrs. R. P. Dillard, of Centre Cross, Essex county. He had one son, William Butler, who lived in Missourl, but who died some years ago.

Dr. Butler had been married sixty years, having married a Miss Gatewood, a daughter of Washington Gatewood, of this county.

Dr. Butler graduated at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, and came to Caroline and located near Sparta, where he was actively engaged in the practice of his profession up to a few months before his death. He was a most remarkable man reading the fines are markable man reading the fines print without the use of glasses. He made his professional visits to the rich and poor alike, the poor receiving the same careful attention as those who paid him. He was never known to oppress the poor, and was always kind to the poor, extending a generous hand to those who came to him for a favor, irrespective of color.

Dr. Butler served two terms in the Legislature before the war, and had also represented this county but term in the Legislature since the war. He enlisted in the Confederate army in the Ninth Virginia Cavalry, but was detailed for hospital service. He was a magistrate in this county for a number of years, and for a long time a member of theboard of supervisors, of which he was chairman. At his death he was member of the pension board of commissioners. He was a man of sterling qualities, strict integrity, great personal magnetism, and had the esteem and love of all who knew him.

His popularity was so great that during his last illness, notwithstanding the terrible weather, friends from distant parts of the county drave many miles to visit him. Butler served two terms in the
